Decline in leather garment exports

89.1. SHRI C. PERUMAL: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a decline in leather garment exports;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor; and

(c) the steps taken to increase the leather garment exports?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI JAIRAM RAMESH): (a) and (b) Yes Sir. In the last few years there is a declining trend in leather garments exports. The reasons for the decline in exports are inter-alia the increasing popularity of garments of substitute materials, changing climatic conditions in destination markets, supplies at lower rate by other countries etc.

(c) Government is taking steps to implement the Indian Leather Development Programme (ILDP), with an outlay of Rs. 400 crore, inter-alia for technology upgradation, modernization and expansion of the leather industry as well as for infrastructure development and capacity building. Government is also supporting Council for Leather Exports (CLE) and individual exporters for exports of leather products through the Market Development Assistance and the Market Access initiative Schemes.
